

Please refrain from tampering with State Laws regarding telephone privacy. I live in Indiana and signed the "do not call list" and it has been a God send. We can eat dinner now, without the hassle of 5-10 phone calls every evening. It is a huge invasion of my privacy when these telemarketers call and interrupt my home life. I am sure the majority of Americans would agree with my assessment.